

TIME 2 JACK

General Booking Terms and Conditions

Agency: Time2jack c/o the Spin Artist

EIN - 46-4834847 at Illinois Secretary of State

As an agency, we believe in building harmonious and long term relationships with the artists we represent and the artists we work with. Our approach is proactive, involving strategic acquisition of bookings as well as purposeful promotional activities. We view this booking agreement as a collaboration between artist, booking agent and promotor where open dialogue is encouraged and ideas can be freely shared. Our collaboration is based on mutual trust in each other ability and loyalty.

ARTICLE 1: DEFINITIONS

In these General Booking Terms and Condition the following terms have the following meaning, unless explicitly stated otherwise.

ARTICLE 2: BOOKING AGREEMENTS AND GENERAL BOOKING TERMS AND CONDITIONS

1. These General Booking Terms and Conditions apply to all offers and all Agreements of Time2jack related to bookings and Performances of its Artists. Agreements are binding only after Time2jack has confirmed these in writing.
2. Other terms and conditions are part of the Agreement only if and to the extent the Parties have explicitly agreed upon in this writing. Additions or amendments to the General Booking Terms and Conditions or additions or amendments to the Agreement are binding only after Time2jack has confirmed these in writing.
3. If any offer or a confirmation of an engagement that includes a reference to these General Booking Terms and Conditions is accepted and retained by the Promotor without any comment, the latter will be deemed to have consented to the application thereof.
4. If any provision of the General Booking Terms and Conditions is wholly or partly inapplicable or valid, this does not affect the applicability or validity of the remaining provisions.
5. Any general terms and conditions customarily used by the Promotor are expressly excluded.
6. Agreements may be concluded solely between Time2jack and the Promotor. The Promotor shall refrain from seeking any direct contact and/or concluding any agreement with an Artist without the express prior written consent of Time2jack.
7. Time2jack is entitled to engage third parties for the purpose of executing the Agreement.

ARTICLE 3: OFFERS

1. All offers, quotations, price lists, delivery dates, etc. submitted by Time2jack are without obligation, unless these include a period for acceptance. If any offer or quotation without obligation is accepted by the Promotor, Time2jack is entitled to revoke the offer within two business days of the date of receipt of the acceptance.
2. The Promotor cannot derive any rights from images and descriptions contained in offers, brochures, catalogues and other promotional material provided by or on behalf of Time2jack. The foregoing data do not bind Time2jack.

ARTICLE 4: ARTISTS AND PERFORMANCES

1. The Promotor declares that he/she is fully aware of the creative work of the Artist and with the kind or nature of the latter's Performance that has been contracted.
2. The Promotor guarantees that before, during and after the Performance, at least the refreshments and items specified the Artist in accordance with the Hospitality Rider will be available in the dressing room.
3. The Promotor guarantees that the lighting and sound equipment needed for the Performance and any sound checks, as specified by the Artist in writing, will be available in good time before the start of the Performance and that these will also satisfy the specifications of the Technical Rider, as stated by the Artist.
4. The Promotor shall ensure that any permits or exemptions that may be required in connection with the Performance will be available. If any such permits etc. are not available, on behalf of the Artist Time2jack is entitled to cancel the Performance. In this case, the Promotor's obligation to pay the agreed Performance Fee will continue to exist and the Promotor agrees to indemnify Time2jack and/or the Artists against any and all third-part claims due to the cancellation. Without prejudice to the foregoing, Time2jack reserves the right to claim full compensation from the Promotor, either alone or also on behalf of the Artist and/or third parties.
5. Time2jack shall ensure that the Artist will be at the venue agreed upon in good time before the start of the Performance, with everything that is needed for the Performance, except where the foregoing must be supplied or organized by the Promotor.
6. The venue or location of the Performance will be laid down in the Agreement and is binding. The Promotor agrees to provide a route description.
7. The start time and duration of the Performance will be laid down in the Agreement and are binding. The start time is approximate only and can never be invoked as a firm deadline vis-à-vis the Artist and/or Time2jack. At the request of the Promotor and with the permission of the Artist and the latter's manager, the duration of the Performance may be extended. The Promotor will be charged for such extensions as additional work.
8. Time2jack is entitled to provide the Promotor with a guest list comprising at least ten (10) persons per Performance.

ARTICLE 5: PROMOTIONAL MATERIAL

1. The Promotor requires the prior permission in writing of Time2jack with respect to the inclusion of the Artist's name, logo, artwork and/or image in the promotional material, in the broadest sense of the word, to be produced. For this purpose, the Promotor agrees to submit a specified number of specimen copies of the promotional material for the approval of Time2jack in advance.
2. Promotional material containing the Artist's name and/or image may not be distributed until after Time2jack and, if necessary, the Artist has granted written permission for that.
3. The Promotor shall ensure that there will be sufficient promotion and publicity of the Performance and guarantees that the Artist's name, logo, artwork etc. will be stated correctly in all of the Promotor's forms of communication and publicity relating to the Performance.
4. Without the prior permission in writing of Time2jack and, if necessary, the Artist, the Promotor may not sell sound and/or image carriers, posters and/or other articles containing the name, portrait, logo, etc. of the Artist at or in the vicinity of the venue or location of the Performance before, during and after the Performance. The Promotor shall take all necessary measures to prevent third parties from offering and/or selling such products.

ARTICLE 6: WARRANTIES & GUARANTEES:

1. Time2jack warrants that there is no obligation preventing it from performing its obligations arising under the Agreement.
2. Time2jack warrants that the Artist is an independent contractor for tax purposes and shall ensure that all statutorily required contributions, levies, deductions, etc. relating to the fee payable to the Artist will be effected in good time. Time2jack agrees to indemnify the Promotor in respect of the foregoing. This indemnity does not apply to any remuneration or compensation, whether in cash or in kind, paid directly by the Promotor to the Artist.
3. At the request of the Promotor, Time2jack will provide the Promotor with a copy of the Artist's independent contractor statement (VAR).
4. Further, the Promotor guarantees that:
 - A. if other people are required to perform work in the relevant room where the Performance is to take place, this work will have been finished in good time before the Artist starts to use the room for the purpose of making preparations there without let or hindrance;
 - B. Time2jack, any third parties it engages, and the Artist will have free access to the room where the Performance is to take place and that preparations can be made without let or hindrance;
 - C. a proper dressing room or other room will be available to the Artist, that this room can be properly heated, that it is equipped with a mirror and power supply, and that the relevant room can be properly locked;
 - D. a properly covered stage or a stage that can be properly covered is available, unless otherwise agreed in writing;
 - E. there will be sanitary facilities within a reasonable distance;
 - F. the requested items according to the written statements referred to in Paragraphs 2 and 3 of Article 7 will be present;
 - G. the working environment will satisfy the statutory requirements in respect thereof and that the Artist's safety before, during and after the Performance is safeguarded, inter alia by means of sufficient security and other staff, crush barriers, stage hands, etc.;
 - H. the maximum number of persons admitted under the relevant Fire Service Regulations and/or other regulations, whether issued by public authorities or otherwise, in the room where the Performance is to take place will not be exceeded;
 - I. without the prior written permission of Time2jack, no audio and/or video recordings will be made of the Performance and that the Promotor will take all necessary measures to prevent third parties from making audio and/or (audio) video recordings of the Performance without permission.

ARTICLE 7: CANCELLATION

1. Cancellation of the Performance by the Promotor is possible only if Time2jack grants permission for that. Any oral or written cancellation by the Promotor is not valid unless it has been accepted by Time2jack in writing. Where Time2jack agrees in writing to the cancellation desired by the Promotor, the latter is liable to pay compensation to Time2jack on the basis of the following indicators, to be calculated as follows:
 - A. in the case of cancellation in the period from 60 (sixty) days before the agreed date of the Performance, the Promotor is liable to pay compensation amounting to 50% of the Artist Fee and 100% of the Booking Fee;
 - B. in the case of cancellation in the period within 60 (sixty) days before the agreed date of the Performance, the Promotor is liable to pay compensation amounting to 100% of the Artist Fee and 100% of the Booking Fee;
2. Without prejudice to the foregoing, Time2jack reserves the right to claim full compensation from the Promotor, including costs of travel and accommodation, whether alone or also on behalf of the Artist and/or third parties.
3. Time2jack is entitled to cancel a Performance for reasons of its own until two (2) weeks before the agreed date of the Performance, with reimbursement (and with crediting of any part) of the Performance Fee (or any part thereof) already paid by the Promotor to Time2jack, or with crediting of the agreed Performance Fee if the fee has not yet been paid to Time2jack. Apart from the reimbursement or crediting of the Performance Fee or any part thereof, neither Time2jack nor the Artist will be liable to compensate the Promotor and/or third parties for any other amounts that may be claimed, of whatever nature.
4. Except in the case of force majeure for example due to illness of the Artist, cancellation by Time2jack of a Performance in the period from two (2) weeks before the agreed date of the Performance until the date of the Performance is permitted when the Artist has a television or radio performance, a performance abroad or any other promotional performance or any other obligation at the date of the Performance, the day before it and/or the day after it. Neither Time2jack nor the Artist will be liable to pay compensation to the Promotor and/or third parties. In this case, the Promotor (or third parties) will not be entitled to claim any compensation from Time2jack. Any Performance Fee paid in advance will be refunded to the Promotor.
5. In the cases referred to in Paragraphs 3 and 4 of this article, Time2jack may submit one or more reasonable proposals to the Promotor for a substitute artist, or to change the Performance into another date in consultation with the Promotor, without Time2jack being required to refund or credit the Performance Fee or any part thereof that has already been paid. The Promotor must inform Time2jack in writing whether or not he/she/it wishes to agree to the proposals within 48 hours of the cancellation and the submission of the proposals by Time2jack.
6. Time2jack is entitled to cancel the Performance if the Promotor fails to meet the relevant payment obligations in due time. In this situation, the Promotor's obligation to pay the Performance Fee as well as costs of travel and accommodation continues to exist at all times and the Promotor agrees to indemnify Time2jack and/or the Artist against any and all third-party claims due to the cancellation

ARTICLE 8: INABILITY TO EXECUTE THE AGREEMENT AND FORCE MAJEURE

1. If, during the preparation and/or execution of the agreed activities, it turns out that these cannot be executed, either as a result of circumstances that are unknown to Time2jack or as a result of force majeure, Time2jack is entitled to demand that the engagement awarded to it be changed such as to enable it to execute the Agreement, unless such execution will never be possible as a result of the unknown circumstances or the force majeure. In that case, Time2jack is entitled to full compensation for the activities it has already performed.

2. Where Time2jack and/or the Artist cannot perform its/his obligations under the Agreement concluded with the Promotor due to non-attributable non-performance on the part of Time2jack, or on the part of the Artist or other third parties engaged by Time2jack for the purpose of executing the Agreement, or where Time2jack is confronted with another substantial reason, Time2jack is entitled to dissolve the Agreement concluded between the Parties or to suspend the performance of its obligations toward the Promotor for a period to be determined by it, without being liable to pay any compensation. If this situation arises when part of the Agreement has already been executed, the Promotor is required to fulfil his/her/its obligations towards Time2jack until that time

3. Circumstances indicative of non-attributable non-performance include the following:

- War, terrorism, riots, mobilization, domestic and foreign disturbances, government measures, strikes, and lockouts, or the threat of these or similar circumstances;
- illness of the Artist; on request submitted within 24 hours following the sickness report to the Promotor, a medical certificate may be drawn up by an independent doctor at the Promotor's expense;
- Disruption of the exchange rates existing at the time of the conclusion of the Agreement;
- Disruption of business operations as a result of fire, accident or other events; - Acts of God;
- Government measures that prevent the Artist from giving his Performance or that place a disproportionate burden on the Performance;

all this being irrespective of whether Time2jack, the Artist or other third parties engaged by it for the purpose of executing the Agreement fail to perform the relevant contractual obligations or fail to perform them in good time.

4. If the Promotor fails to meet his/her/its obligations vis-à-vis Time2jack promptly in any way, in the case of cessation of payments, an application for court-ordered suspension of payments, (application for) bankruptcy, attachment of assets under a writ of execution, assignment of an estate or the liquidation of the business of the Promotor, all debts owed by the latter to Time2jack under any Agreement are immediately and fully due and payable.

ARTICLE 9: COPYRIGHTS AND NEIGHBOURING RIGHTS

The Promotor undertakes to pay all statutorily required taxes and make all relevant payments for copyrights and/or neighboring rights and the like related to the Performance, including payments to collecting societies, if applicable.

If needed, the Promotor will advise Time2jack in writing when returning this contract the rate of the said collecting societies (or the local equivalent performance royalty) and will supply Time2jack with a receipt for the same specifying in detail the amount paid on the performance[s] on this contract within 14 days of the show/performance.

ARTICLE 10: PRICES

1. All prices quoted by Time2jack are exclusive of VAT and any other government levies, unless explicitly stated otherwise.
2. A. If any changes are made by the government and/or trade unions in wages, terms and conditions of employment, social insurance schemes and the like between the date on which the Agreement is concluded and the execution of the Agreement, Time2jack is entitled to pass on the increases to the Promotor. If a new price list is issued by Time2jack and takes effect between the dates referred to above, Time2jack is entitled to charge the Promotor the prices specified therein.

ARTICLE: 11 PAYMENTS

1. Payments must be made no later than 14 (fourteen) weeks before the agreed date of the Performance or, if the Agreement includes a specific payment date (or payment dates), no later than that payment date (or payment dates), unless the parties have agreed otherwise separately and in writing. Additional work must be paid within the payment term defined in the relevant invoice.
2. If any payment has not been received by Time2jack in a timely fashion and/or in full in accordance with paragraph 1 or after the expiry of the payment term as defined in paragraph 1:
 - A. The Promotor will owe Time2jack default interest, being the interest at the statutory rate as referred to all terms and conditions are pursuant to the laws of the state of Illinois and any legal proceedings will be conducted in the courts of Illinois.
 - B. the Promotor will owe the legal costs (including but not limited to the extrajudicial costs up to 15% of the Promotor plus the relevant interest as well as the judicial costs) of Time2jack.
3. In the situations mentioned above or in similar situations, including, in any case, the situation referred to in Article 11(2), Time2jack may, at its sole discretion, dissolve the Agreement either wholly or partly, whether in combination with a claim for damages or otherwise, without any notice of default or judicial intervention being required.
4. If the Promotor has failed to meet his/her/its payment obligations, Time2jack, is entitled, in addition to cancelling the Performance under Article 7(6) of these General Booking Terms and Conditions, to suspend the performance of its own obligations towards the Promotor in respect of delivery or services to be performed until the relevant payment has been made or proper security in respect thereof has been provided. The same applies before the date on which default commences if Time2jack has reasonable suspicion to doubt the Promotor's creditworthiness.
5. Payments made by the Promotor will first be applied to settle all interest and costs payable and subsequently will be applied to settle the due and payable debt or invoice which has been outstanding for the longest period, even though the Promotor states that the payment relates to a later invoice.
 - A. If the Promotor has or acquires any counterclaims, of whatever nature, against Time2jack, the Promotor agrees to waive the right of setoff with respect to such claim(s). This waiver of the right of setoff also applies if the Promotor applies for court-ordered suspension of payments or is declared bankrupt
 - B. The provision under 6 A of this article is not applicable if the Promotor is a natural person not acting in a professional or commercial capacity

ARTICLE 12: COMPLAINTS

1. The Promotor may lodge duly reasoned written complaints relating to the execution of the Agreement with Time2jack within 24 (twenty four) hours after the Performance. Any oral complaint must be followed up by an immediate written confirmation thereof, within the said term.
2. If a complaint has not been lodged with Time2jack within the said term, the Agreement will be deemed to have been properly executed.
3. Complaints do not suspend the Promotor's payment obligations.
4. Time2jack must be given the opportunity to investigate the complaint.
5. If the complaint is justified, the relevant loss or damage will be settled in accordance with the provisions of Article 13.

ARTICLE 13: LIABILITY AND INDEMNITY

1. The Promotor is liable for any damage that has arisen before, during or after the Performance to sound and lighting systems and other equipment and/or possessions of Time2jack and/or the Artist's that were present at the venue and/or dressing room as a result of, but not limited to any act or omission of the Promotor, his/her/its staff, the audience present at the Performance or disruptions in the power supply, leakage, etc.
2. The Promotor has to take out adequate insurance in the context of the execution of the Agreement and the Performance.
3. Time2jack will discharge its duties in such a manner as may be expected of a business in its sector, but it accepts no liability at all for any damage or loss, including consequential loss, caused by its acts or omissions, in the broadest sense of the word, except where such damage or loss is attributable to its gross negligence and/or intent. The same limitation applies to Artists, employees or other third parties engaged by Time2jack for the purpose of performing its work.
4. Without prejudice to the provisions of the other paragraphs of this article, the liability of Time2jack – by whatever reason – is limited to the agreed Booking Fee. Compliance with this provision is regarded as the only and as full compensation.
5. Without prejudice to the preceding paragraph of this article, Time2jack and/or the Artist is never required to pay compensation that exceeds the amount insured, to the extent that the damage or loss is covered by the insurance taken out by Time2jack.
6. In all cases the period within a claim for compensation can be brought against Time2jack and/or the Artist is limited to 12 months.
7. The Promotor loses his/her/its rights towards Time2jack, is liable for any and all damage or loss, and agrees to indemnify Time2jack and/or the Artist against any and all third-party claims for compensation, if and to the extent:
 - A. such damage or loss has been caused by the Promotor giving inaccurate and/or incomplete information to Time2jack and/or the Artist;
 - B. Such damage or loss has been caused by the Promotor's failure to act in accordance with the instructions or advice given by Time2jack and/or the Artist;
 - C. such damage or loss has been caused by errors or inaccuracies with respect to data, materials, information carriers, and the like that were given and/or prescribed by or on behalf of the Promotor to Time2jack.
8. The Promotor also agrees to indemnify Time2jack and/or the Artist against any and all damage or loss and claims of third parties, including all judicial or extrajudicial costs incurred as a result of the Promotor's failure to comply with the warranties or guarantees specified in these General Booking Terms and Conditions or to satisfy the other obligations assumed by the Promotor under the Agreement.

ARTICLE 14: BANKRUPTCY; NO POWER OF DISPOSITION, ETC.

Without prejudice to the other articles of these General Booking Terms and Conditions, the Agreement concluded between the Promotor and Time2jack will be dissolved without judicial intervention and without any notice of default being required, if and when the Promotor is declared bankrupt or there will be filed an application for bankruptcy, applies for court-ordered suspension of payments, is affected by attachment of assets under a writ of execution, is placed under curatorship or an administration order, or if or when the Promotor loses the power of disposition or capacity to contract with respect to his/her/its assets or any parts thereof for any other reason, unless the trustee in the bankruptcy or the administrator appointed for the suspension of payments recognizes the obligations arising under the Agreement as an estate debt.

ARTICLE 15: GOVERNING LAW/COMPETENT COURT

1. The Agreement(s) concluded between Time2jack and the Promotor will be governed exclusively by law of the United States of America Accordingly, any disputes arising under such Agreement(s) will be settled exclusively in accordance to the laws of the state of Illinois.
2. All disputes will be referred exclusively to the competent court in Chicago, Illinois (USA).
